We recognize that we worship on the traditional lands of the the Sycelwhw Nation, which means 'The people who live here.'. We acknowledge their care of the land prior to European settlement. Today, we share this land together, and continue to work towards healing and reconciliation.

Call to Worship

In this silent night,

We ponder your mystery with Mary and Joseph.

On this holy night,

We come with the shepherds to worship.

On this night of joy for the world,

We sing praises with choirs of angels.

In the darkness of this night,

We celebrate the Light of the World.
