We recognize that we worship on the traditional lands of the Syeelwh Nation, which means 'The people who live here.'. We acknowledge their care of the land prior to European settlement. Today, we share this land together, and continue to work towards healing and reconciliation.

PASS THE FISH

Sunday Morning Worship

"Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another,
"What does this mean?"

-Acts 2:8

Musical Prelude - He Is Exalted

Welcome

"Where is bread?" the great crowd murmured—
Thousands strong, yet all in need.
"Where is bread?" your people wondered,
Faced with such a crowd to feed.
Who, Lord Jesus, could have guessed it?
One small boy brought food to share.
Taking what he gave, you blessed it;
All were fed, with much to spare.

Opening Hymn - I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say.

Opening Prayer

Good Shepherd, teach us to follow you to care for all that are close to us, to protect those who are threatened,
to welcome those who are rejected,
to forgive those who are burdened by guilt,
to heal those who are broken and sick,
to share with those who have little or nothing, to take the time to really know one another and love as you have loved us.

Good Shepherd, teach us to follow you
to spread compassion to those who are far away,
to speak for those who are voiceless,
to defend those who are oppressed and abused,
to work for justice for those who are exploited,
to make peace for those who suffer violence,
to take the time to recognize our connectedness,
and to love as you have loved us.

Good Shepherd, teach us to follow you and to be faithful to calling you gave us to be shepherds in your name.

Prayers for the People with He Touched Me

*He touched me, oh, He touched me
And oh, the joy that floods my soul
Something happened, and now I know
He touched me, and made me whole*
