We recognize that we worship on the traditional lands of the Syeelwh Nation, which means 'The people who live here.'. We acknowledge their care of the land prior to European settlement. Today, we share this land together, and continue to work towards healing and reconciliation.

HARVEST COMMUNION

Sunday Morning Worship

“Go and collect the leftovers,
so we are not wasteful..”

-John 6:1-15

Opening Chorus - Praise God From Whom all Blessings

Welcome

We dare to dream of a world in which hunger is unknown: where scarcity is an illusion, and everyone has a place at the table.

We dare to dream of a world in which generosity is the norm:
where greed finds no foothold, and there is more than enough for all.

We dare to dream of a world in which love rules: where compassion is the first response, and there is no place for bigotry.

We dare to dream.

We dare to pray.

We dare to believe

Opening Hymn - Come ye Thankful People Come

Opening Prayer

You asked for my hands that you might use them for your purposes.

I gave them for a moment then withdrew them for the work was hard.

You asked for my mouth to speak out against injustice.

I gave you a whisper that I might not be accused.

You asked for my eyes to see the pain of poverty.

I closed them for I did not want to see.

You asked for my life that you might work through me.

I gave you a small part that I might not get “too involved.”

...pause

Lord, forgive me for calculated efforts to serve you only when it is convenient for me to do so, and only in those places where it is safe to do so, and only with those who make it easy to do so.

Lord, forgive me, renew me, send me out as a usable instrument, that I may take seriously the meaning of your cross.
